Discover the origin of “Grüner Veltliner”

New- First Class Wine tours to top wine makers in Austria

Wine connoisseurs and wine lovers are now able to discover the making of “Grüner Veltliner” at the origin. VINTRA™-First Class Holidays is offering wine tours to internationally rewarded wine makers in Austria. The arrangements combine wine tasting with accommodation in luxury hotels downtown Vienna, gourmet experiences in rewarded restaurants and enough time to discover the culture and flair of Vienna. More information and booking under www.vintra.at.

Wine tours for Connoisseurs

The Austrian wine has gained more and more international recognition in the last years. Exciting results in international tastings allow rankings among the top wines of the world. Now Vintra™-First Class Holidays has established a high class travel program to bring wine connoisseurs around the world together with these excellent wine makers in Austria. Ingrid Kratzel, the owner of Vintra™-First Class Holidays, explains: “The wine tours are arranged to harmonize perfectly with the demands of international wine lovers and wine connoisseurs. Multilingual wine experts guide our guests to the excellent boutique wine estates in all beautiful regions in Austria, often located in UNESCO World Heritages”. Tours and tastings in the wine estates, often accompanied by interesting discussions with the wine maker himself, provide fascinating insights into the differences among the Austrian wine makers.

Time for the capital Vienna

The wine tours start from Vienna, because nearly all the major wineries in Austria could be visited in daily excursions. For accommodation the guest can choose among excellent Hotels like Imperial, Bristol or Le Meridien downtown Vienna. For cultural experiences or shopping there is also enough time during the flexible 5-day arrangements. Gourmet dinner in first class restaurants make these wine tours to an unforgettable experience. The tour operator will also arrange tickets for concerts, city tours or other cultural events.

Private and flexible All-Inclusive Arrangements

The Vintra™ Wine tours include accommodation in 5 Star Hotels, private and expert guided tours to five wine estates, lunch and dinner and all private transfers. The wine tours can be booked for every desired date and for a minimum of 2 persons. Vintra™ Wine tours can be arranged into all wine regions of Austria. The tours are operated by Welcome Touristic Vienna, a company with 35 years experience in travel and tourism.
