The famous Austrian wine estates – worth to visit

In Austria it is so easy now to visit the famous wine makers. In expert-guided tours wine connoisseurs meet the Austrian wine makers and discover the “Grüner Veltliner” at the origin. The wineries, which have won their place amongst the international wine league, are worth to be visited. Located in beautiful landscape, easy to be reached from the capital Vienna, the tours and tastings allow interesting insights in the diversity of Austrian wine.

VINTRA™-First Class Holidays offers now wine tours to internationally rewarded wine makers in Austria. The arrangements combine wine tastings with accommodation in luxury hotels downtown Vienna, gourmet experiences in excellent restaurants and enough time to discover the culture and flair of Vienna. ### Wine tours for Connoisseurs

The high class travel program should bring wine connoisseurs around the world together with these excellent wine makers in Austria. Ingrid Kratzel, the owner of Vintra™-First Class Holidays, explains: “The wine tours are arranged to harmonize perfectly with the demands of international wine aficionados. Multilingual wine experts guide our guests to the excellent boutique wineries, often located in the beautiful landscapes in UNESCO World Heritages”. Tours and tastings in internationally rewarded wineries, often accompanied by interesting discussions with the wine maker himself, provide fascinating insights into the differences among the Austrian wines.

Time for the capital Vienna

The wine tours start from Vienna, all important wine regions could be visited in day-tours. “From Wachau to Burgenland we visit some of the famous wine makers, like Loimer, Wieninger, Donabaum and a lot more”, Ingrid explains. For accommodation the guest can choose among excellent Hotels like Imperial, Bristol or Le Meridien downtown Vienna. There is also enough time for cultural experiences or shopping during these flexible 5-day arrangements. The tour operator will also arrange tickets for concerts, city tours or other cultural events.

Private and flexible All-Inclusive Arrangements

The Vintra™ Wine tours include accommodation in 5 Star Hotels, private and expert guided tours to the wine estates, lunch, dinner and all private transfers. The wine tours can be booked for every desired date and for a minimum of 2 persons. Vintra™ Wine tours can be arranged into all wine regions of Austria. The tours are operated by Welcome Touristic Vienna, a company with 35 years experience in travel and tourism.
